From Tuesday July 17. to Saturday July 21. 1722.

Whitehall, July 20.

AN humble Addreſs of the Cuſtos Rotulorum Juſtices of the Peace and Grand Jury for the County of Weſtmoreland, at the General Quarter Seſſions held for the ſaid County, having been tranſmitted by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Lonſdale to the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty.

An humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northampton, aſſembled at the Aſſizes held for the ſaid County on Tueſday the 3d Day of July 1722, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Montagu.

An humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Gentlemen of the Grand Jury aſſembled at the Aſſizes held at Oxford on the 11th of July, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir John D'Oyley, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Liſbon, July 5, N. S. On the 25th paſt, his Britannick Majeſty's Ship the Durſley Galley entred this River, after having cruized for ſome Days off the Burlings; where on the 21ſt ſhe met the Dutch Squadron, under the Command of Commodore Grave, conſiſting of ſix Men of War of 40 Guns each. They were proceeding for the Mediterranean, in order to cruize againſt the Algerines, who (as we are informed by Letters from Faro of the 26th paſt) in Conjunction with the Rovers of Sallee, have fitted out 18 Ships of above 20 Guns each.

Stockholm, June 27, O. S. The King and Queen of Sweden arrived at Medway on the 19th Inſtant, and by the laſt Letters from thence her Majeſty had already begun to drink the Waters of that Place; but upon ſome Experiments made of thoſe Waters by one of the King's Phyſicians, his Majeſty has been diſſwaded from drinking them. And they write, that his Majeſty would in all Probability ſtay only 10 or 12 Days longer there, and go from thence to take a View of the Fleet at Carlſcroon. The Dutcheſs Dowager of Mecklenbourg, his Swediſh Majeſty's Siſter, having deſired Leave to pay her Reſpects to the Queen, it is ſaid the King has permitted that Princeſs to come, and that his Majeſty will himſelf meet her at Elſinburg; and as his Majeſty has appointed the Beginning of Auguſt for the reviewing of the ſeveral Regiments in Schonen, and the adjacent Provinces, it is preſumed her Highneſs will come over about the ſame Time. The Weather has all the laſt Month and this been ſo extream wet and cold all over this Kingdom, that if a ſudden Change do not happen, the whole Crop of Corn now on the Ground muſt be inevitably ſpoiled, the Wheat and Rye particularly being already every where laid almoſt flat on the Ground.

Copenhagen, July 18, N. S. The King of Denmark came Yeſterday from Fredericksberg to Copenhagen, to ſee a new Ship of 94 Guns launched, which is called by the Queen's Name Anna Sophia. His Majeſty dined aboard the Pomerania a Frigate which is fitted out as a Yacht for his Majeſty's Uſe. The Weather being fine, his Majeſty gave Orders to ſail to Elſinore, where he deſigned to land, and to go from thence to Fredericksbourg, but the Wind changing he was obliged to return to Copenhagen, from whence his Majeſty is this Day gone to Fredericksbourg. The King of Sweden is expected ſhortly in Schonen. The King of Denmark has given Orders to his Grand Mareſchal to go thither as ſoon as he arrives, and to invite his Majeſty to come to this Court.

Whitehall, July 20. The Right Honourable the Lord Whitworth, His Majeſty's Ambaſſadour Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at the Congreſs at Cambray, ſet out to Day for Dover, in order to imbark for Calais. His Lordſhip is to make a ſhort Stay at Paris, and from thence to proceed to Cambray.

Baron Sparre the King of Sweden's Envoy Extraordinary, will ſet out from hence next Tueſday for Stockholm, from whence he is to return in a few Weeks to this Court.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury being enabled to diſcharge and cancel the Exchequer Bills, amounting to One Million, which were, on the 7th Day of June 1720, iſſued by way of Loan, to the South-Sea Company; their Lordſhips, according to the Directions of Acts of Parliament in that behalf, do hereby give Notice, That all Perſons poſſeſſed of the ſaid Loan Bills, ſhall have time, till Tueſday the Seventh Day of Auguſt 1722, to bring in and deliver the ſaid Bills to any the Tellers of the Receipts of the Exchequer at their Offices there; who are thereupon to pay to the Bearer of ſuch Bills, the Principal and Intereſt to the Day on which they ſhall be ſo brought, ſuch Day being on or before the Seventh Day of Auguſt 1722, as aforeſaid: And, if in caſe the ſaid Bills be not brought in on or before the Day affixed as aforeſaid, their Lordſhips do further ſignify, that, according to the Directions of the Act 8° Georgii, all ſuch of the ſaid Bills as ſhall not be brought in upon this Notice to be diſcharged, loſe their Currency, and no Intereſt is to grow due thereupon after Lady-Day 1722. And whereas not only the Exchequer Bills, called Loan Bills, now meant to be cancelled, but alſo all other the Exchequer Bills ſubſiſting at the time the ſaid Loan Bills were iſſued, carried Intereſt of One Penny per Cent. per Diem only, in the Body of the ſaid Bills, but it was afterwards thought fit and agreed, for ſupporting the Credit and Currency of the ſaid Bills, that One Penny per Cent. per Diem, additional Intereſt, ſhould attend, and be paid on the ſaid Bills, from the eighth Day of October 1720, and publick Notification thereof was given by the then Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, and the ſaid Intereſt and Additional Intereſt, making together Two Pence per Cent. per Diem, has attended and been paid, or is payable on the ſaid Bills accordingly; Now, the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury having contracted and agreed with the Bank of England, for the Circulating and Exchanging of all Exchequer Bills, at Demand, during the Space of one Year, beginning from the 24th Day of July 1722, their Lordſhips give Notice that the ſaid additional Intereſt of One Penny per Cent. per Diem, not only on the ſaid Loan Bills, but other the old Exchequer Bills, that had then a joint Currency with them, is to ceaſe and be no longer paid, than to the ſaid 24th Day of July 1722: So that from and after that Day, the Intereſt on the ſaid Bills will be One Penny per Cent. per Diem only, as the ſame ſtands expreſſed and declared in the Body of the ſame Bills.

The Act of Parliament eſtabliſhing the Lottery commonly called the firſt Lottery Anno 1719, requiring that the Fortunate Tickets in the ſame Lottery ſhall be delivered up to the Accomptant General of the Bank to be converted into a Capital Stock transferable at the Bank and attended with Annuities after the Rate of Four per Cent. per Annum, payable by the Caſhier of the Bank till redeemed by Parliament. The Accomptant General of the Bank gives Notice, that he is ready to take in all ſuch of the ſaid Fortunate Tickets as have been certified not to be ſubſcribed into the Capital of the South-Sea-Company.
